

Back-Up Plan

It is important to have a back-up plan in place if the situation should arise where you child must be out of childcare. Whether it be for illness, classroom closures, or other situations, it is your responsibility as the parents to have a family member, friend, or neighbor lined up to assist you so you can still fulfill work duties or commitments without worry.