

Abuse and Neglect

As mandated reporters the staff is required to note any injuries or signs of abuse or neglect and bring them to the immediate attention of the Director or her/designee. The staff person who suspects the abuse is then responsible for making or causing to be made an immediate report to the Statewide Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment.