

Conferences and Progress Reports

Parent/teacher conferences are held once a year for children who are in the four year old classes, usually in November. Parents are required to attend. Other conferences will be scheduled as needed. It's an opportunity to sit one on one with your child's teacher and discuss your child's progress and developmental goals.